13.30 Welcoming speech by the organizers and the chairman

Prof. Dr. Bernd Lindemann, University of Applied Sciences Wiesbaden-Geisenheim, Germany

Market developments

13.40 The Global Market for Beverage Packaging: Trends, Innovation and Challenges

Kevin Baker, Canadean, Great Britain

14.10 Modern filling systems for plastic bottles

Manfred Michl, KHS, Germany

14.40 Technical innovations for Bottling Applications

- Integrated technology concept of oxygen-free bottling
- Filling valves – new tech development
- Multi-systems for glass, PET and multi caper systems
- Quick operation: product and format changeovers

Rolf Gänz, Atlantic C/Bertolaso, Germany/Italy

15.10 Panel Discussion

15.30 Coffee Break

New or used? – purchase decisions and recommendations

16.00 Investment in PET equipment – new or used?

Axel Below, GloCon Technical Supplies & Trading, Germany

16.30 Decision criteria for the construction of a complex new filling area – practice report

Peter Wagner, Brasserie Bofferding, Luxembourg

17.00 Key Points of Contracts on New and Used Equipment

- Specifications / Definition of contract products
- Delivery / Installation / Commissioning
- Remedies in case of late performance
- Acceptance
- Claims in the event of non conforming contract products / defects; liability

Dr. Claudius Dechamps, Waldeck Lawyers, Germany

17.40 Panel Discussion

18.00 End of the First Conference Day

18.15 Departure for the Evening Event

After the first conference day has ended, we would like to invite you to a leisurely evening event in Nürnberg's Old Town. We will just walk a few steps down into the cellar vault of one of Nürnberg's most popular restaurants – and find ourselves in medieval times. Enjoy a medieval banquet and seize the opportunity for informal talks and contacts.

Tuesday, 11 November 2008

Experience with aseptic filling technology

9.00 Design, implementation and validation of an aseptic filling plant

- Technical requirements and purchase criteria
- Why this line and not another?
- Implementation and validation of the line

Alexander Diehm, Mineralbrunnen Überkingen-Teinach, Germany

9.30 Aseptic experience in Jana – Croatia

- Aseptic condition
- Aseptic production
- Aseptic control

Marinko Plestina, Jamnica, Croatia

10.00 Microbiological problem cases in the beverage industry: conclusions drawn from cause studies

Andreas Wilken, SGS Institut Fresenius, Germany

10.30 Panel Discussion

10.50 Coffee Break

Cost and energy management

11.20 Thermal energy supply – options and challenges

- Necessity to save energy
- Biomass as alternative
- Enhancement of energy efficiency by combination of processes
- Energy management as tool to save energy

Dr. Winfried Ruß, Technical University of Munich, Germany

- Line analysis
- Registration of costs
- Production planning
- Formation of operators
- Planning of installation

Manfred Haider, Haipac, Germany

14.40 Line tuning methods for the analysis and optimisation of beverage filling lines

- Performance influencing factors
- Analysis modules
- Summary report
- Benefits

Christian Zimmerer, Krones, Germany

15.10 Panel Discussion

15.30 Coffee Break

15.50 Line renewal investment planning and optimizing through line audits

- Line audit to diagnose line weaknesses
- Simulation of lines to estimate benefits of modification
- Balancing the technical recommendations with costs
- Tools and methods to control line efficiency evolution

Louis Merienne, Sidel, France

16.20 Engineering and Project Management in the beverage industry

- Engineering tasks
 - Project management and project steps
 - Manufacturing, installation, start-up and final testing
- Dr. Wolfgang Glebe, Project Management International, France

16.50 Panel Discussion and Conference Summary by the Chairman

THE EXPERTS

Kevin Baker joined Canadean in 1996 and is responsible for the marketing and development of the Beer, Wines & Spirits Services. Before joining Canadean he spent over 10 years working for Guinness in a number of research and information related roles.

Axel Below founded GloCon in 1994 and is owner and managing director of the company that has its focus on new and used PET equipment.

Michael M. Braitinger is a court appointed expert witness for the validation and inspection of production plants in the food and beverage industry. He runs his own business with SCB in Hamburg, Germany.

Dr. Claudius Dechamps is partner of the law firm Waldeck Lawyers in Frankfurt, Germany. The counselling of his clients in highly complex technical projects is one of his working focuses.

THE EXPERTS

Alexander Diehm is a graduate brewer and technical business management specialist. At Mineralbrunnen Überkingen-Teinach, one of Germany's leading mineral water bottling companies and juice producers, he is technical director of the plant at Kißlegg.

Rolf Gänz founded Atlantic C in 1991. The company plans, conceives and optimizes production lines, specializing in the beverage industry.

Dr. Wolfgang Glebe worked for more than 10 years in the engineering services with Sidel. Since 2006 he is an independant engineer offering services in engineering and international project management.

Manfred Haider is an expert in bottling and packaging lines. He has 20 years of experience in sales and project management of bottling and packaging lines of breweries and soft drinks companies, distilleries and mineral water bottling companies.

Prof. Dr. Bernd Lindemann holds a professorship in Beverage Technology at the University of Applied Sciences at Wiesbaden-Geisenheim. His activities focus on Quality Management, Design and Commissioning of filling plants, Hygienic Design and Product Development.

Louis Merienne is in charge to develop inside the Product Management Team of Sidel, France, all aspects linked to improvement of line performances in terms of operation training, line efficiency audit, line design and simulation, noise reduction and sustainability.

Manfred Michl works in the central production support of KHS at Bad Kreuznach, Germany.

Birte Ostwald studied Industrial Engineering and Management at the University of Bremen with a main focus on environmental bioengineering and production logistics. She is working at ttz Bremerhaven since June 2008.

Marinko Plestina is a graduate food and biotechnologist. He started his career at Jamnica in Croatia in 1997. There, he has been responsible for the mineral water, fruit juices and nectars production as well as for Jamnica's aseptic production. Since 2006 he is Director of Production and Member of Headquarters.

Dr. Winfried Ruß teaches as an assistant professor at the Technical University of Munich, Germany. He is Provisional head of the "Chair for Fluid Mechanics and Process Automation" and one of his research topics is the energetic optimisation of food plants.

Gunther Schmid works as Consultant Beverages at SGS Institut Fresenius in Taunusstein, Germany.

Peter Wagner is Technical Director of the Bofferding Brewery in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. Bofferding has recently made the most important investment in the company's history: A new bottling building and two new filling lines.

Andreas Wilken is a biologist and works as Consultant Beverages at SGS Institut Fresenius GmbH in Taunusstein, Germany.

Christian Zimmerer started his career at Krones in 1991 where he has been working in different departments and responsibilities. Since 2000 he is Vice President for Lifecycle Service Sales global.

WHOM DO YOU MEET AT THE CONFERENCE?

- Consultancies

THE ORGANIZERS:

Increasingly complex demands are being placed on the production of beverages. Dynamically changing consumer needs, legislative dictates, growing cost and competitive pressure necessitate forward-looking product development and high-level, flexible, efficient quality assurance. SGS INSTITUT FRESENIUS offers its customers a comprehensive service portfolio from a single source: from concept development, planning and consulting services, sampling logistics, analysis to troubleshooting. The expertise and years of experience make SGS INSTITUT FRESENIUS a full-service provider for the entire beverage industry.
